EMPLOYMENT SERVICE SENIOR MANAGER - 11433

Salary: $47,757.60 - $72,686.40
Announcement Date: January 21, 2009
Revised Date: August 26, 2015

JOB INFORMATION

The Employment Service Senior Manager is a permanent full-time position with the Department of Labor. Positions are located throughout the state. This is administrative and supervisory work in coordinating and supervising the activities of a large career center office or directing a statewide program of technical services in the central office.

MINIMUM REQUIREMENTS

- Current permanent status within the Department of Labor at, or above, the level of an Unemployment Compensation Specialist; or permanent status as a Labor Career Specialist III or Labor Career Specialist IV
- Three years of professional experience performing career center duties, or work performed in support of the career centers, such as employment services and training services
- Graduation from an accredited* four-year college or university

NOTES

- Professional experience performing career center duties, or work performed in support of the career centers, beyond the required minimum of three years may be used to substitute for college education on a year-for-year basis.
- Applicants must be specific about their career center experience in their application. All periods of employment which included both career center and unemployment compensation (UC) responsibilities must clearly include a statement identifying the percentage of time spent performing career center duties.

EXAMINATION

- Promotional to current state employees in one of the classifications listed above.
- An evaluation of Training and Experience as shown on the application will comprise 95% of the applicant's final score, with the remaining 5% based on the average of the applicant's service ratings for the last three years.

HOW TO APPLY

- Complete an Application for Examination Form available at www.personnel.alabama.gov, the above address, or any Alabama Career Center Office.
- Apply by mail or by fax. Applications will be accepted until further notice. The State Personnel Department is not responsible for late receipt of applications due to mail service or faxing malfunctions.

Veteran's credits are NOT allowed on promotional examinations.

THE STATE OF ALABAMA IS AN EQUAL OPPORTUNITY EMPLOYER

*Please refer to the back of this announcement for complete information on State Personnel's policy for accepting post-secondary and advanced degrees.

Revised

Except for pretest information provided by State Personnel to all applicants, you should not directly or indirectly obtain information about examinations. If you do, the State Personnel Director may do several things. One, you may not be given an examination. Two, you may be disqualified after an examination. Three, your name may be removed from a register. Or four, your name may not be certified from the register. (Rules of the State Personnel Board, Chapter 670-x-9). According to the Code of Alabama, 36-26-47, a willful violation of exam security is a misdemeanor. Any person who is convicted of this type of misdemeanor will not get a state job. If they are officers or employees of the state, they will be required to forfeit their office or position for five years.

If you know of anyone who has violated this policy, you should contact the Examination Manager at the State Personnel Department.

Applicants hired by the State of Alabama on or after January 1, 2012 will be subject to the E-Verify process pursuant to Act No. 2011-535.

State of Alabama Personnel Department Policy on Accepting College Coursework, Post-Secondary and Advanced Degrees

1. Specific college coursework required for a job, as well as Bachelor's, graduate, post graduate, and doctoral degrees will be accepted from the schools accredited by any of the six regional accreditation associations in the United States listed below:
 - Southern Association of Colleges and Schools (SACS)
 - Middle States Commission on Higher Education (MSCHE))
 - Northwest Commission on Colleges and Universities (NWCCU)
 - Higher Learning Commission (HLC)
 - New England Association of Schools and Colleges – Commission on Institutions of Higher Education (NEASC-CIHE)
 - Western Association of Schools and Colleges –Senior College and University Commission (WASC-SCUC)
2. Coursework or degrees from schools that have not been accredited by one of the above listed regional accreditation associations may be accepted if a *regionally accredited school considers the coursework or degree to be an acceptable prerequisite for admission to an advanced degree program. For example, if a regionally accredited school accepts an applicant's bachelor's degree for admittance into a graduate degree program, State Personnel will accept the degree. In the case of required college coursework (but no degree requirement), State Personnel will accept the college coursework if a regionally accredited school accepts the coursework towards a post-secondary degree (e.g., a bachelor's degree). This must be documented by a letter of acceptance from the regionally accredited school. State Personnel will review such requests on a case-by-case basis.

Note: This policy is subject to change. Certain state agencies may have additional requirements.

*The term "regionally accredited school" refers to an institution of higher education accredited by one of the above listed accreditation associations.
