Salary: $32,433.60 - $49,190.40
Announcement Date: March 30, 2011
Revised Date: October 3, 2018

JOB INFORMATION

The Military Construction Specialist I is a permanent, full-time position with the Alabama Military Department. Positions are located throughout the state. This is technical construction and maintenance work in the enforcement of standards in the construction and maintenance of military buildings, roadways, training facilities, aviation facilities, and related projects.

MINIMUM REQUIREMENTS

- Graduation from an accredited* four-year college or university with a Bachelor's degree in Engineering, Building Science, Building Construction, or a closely related field

ADDITIONAL REQUIREMENTS

- Applicants must possess a valid Alabama driver license at time of appointment.
- Applicants must either (1) be a current member of any U.S. Military Reserve Component, (2) become an enlisted and/or appointed member of any U.S. Military Reserve Component, (3) be a former member of the Alabama National Guard or any other branch of the military who has been discharged under honorable conditions after serving required commitment, or (4) be retired from the Alabama National Guard or any other branch of the military. Applicants must also possess or attain the proper security clearances related to specific areas of responsibility as identified by the supervisor. Applicants that are not able to meet the Alabama National Guard membership requirements and/or that cannot attain the proper security clearances will not be provided permanent status.

NOTES

- Technical construction experience above the minimum will substitute for the required education on a year for year basis. Examples of technical construction experience include conducting infrastructure or facilities project inspections, performing master planning infrastructure activities, status reporting, real property reporting and accountability actions.
- All positions will require overnight intra-state and interstate travel.

EXAMINATION

- Open-Competitive to all applicants
- An Evaluation of Training and Experience as shown on the application will comprise 100% of the final score.

HOW TO APPLY

- Complete an Application for Examination Form available at www.personnel.alabama.gov, the above address, or any Alabama Career Center Office.
- Apply by mail or by fax. Applications will be accepted until further notice. The State Personnel Department is not responsible for late receipt of applications due to mail service or faxing malfunctions.

THE STATE OF ALABAMA IS AN EQUAL OPPORTUNITY EMPLOYER

*Please refer to the back of this announcement for complete information on State Personnel's policy for accepting post-secondary and advanced degrees.

Revised

Except for pretest information provided by State Personnel to all applicants, you should not directly or indirectly obtain information about examinations. If you do, the State Personnel Director may do several things. One, you may not be given an examination. Two, you may be disqualified after an examination. Three, your name may be removed from a register. Or four, your name may not be certified from the register. (Rules of the State Personnel Board, Chapter 670-x-9). According to the Code of Alabama, 36-26-47, a willful violation of exam security is a misdemeanor. Any person who is convicted of this type of misdemeanor will be ineligible for appointment to or employment in a position in State service for a period of five years and, if the person is an officer or employee of the State, will forfeit his or her office or position.

If you know of anyone who has violated this policy, you should contact the Examination Manager at the State Personnel Department.

Applicants hired by the State of Alabama on or after January 1, 2012 will be subject to the E-Verify process pursuant to Act No. 2011-535.

State of Alabama Personnel Department Policy on Accepting College Coursework, Post-Secondary and Advanced Degrees

1. Specific college coursework required for a job, as well as Bachelor's, graduate, post graduate, and doctoral degrees will be accepted from the schools accredited by any of the six regional accreditation associations in the United States listed below:
 - Southern Association of Colleges and Schools (SACS)
 - Middle States Commission on Higher Education (MSCHE))
 - Northwest Commission on Colleges and Universities (NWCCU)
 - Higher Learning Commission (HLC)
 - New England Commission of Higher Education (NECHE)
 - Western Association of Schools and Colleges –Senior College and University Commission (WASC-SCUC)

2. Coursework or degrees from schools that have not been accredited by one of the above listed regional accreditation associations may be accepted if a *regionally accredited school considers the coursework or degree to be an acceptable prerequisite for admission to an advanced degree program. For example, if a regionally accredited school accepts an applicant's bachelor's degree for admittance into a graduate degree program, State Personnel will accept the degree. In the case of required college coursework (but no degree requirement), State Personnel will accept the college coursework if a regionally accredited school accepts the coursework towards a post-secondary degree (e.g., a bachelor's degree). This must be documented by a letter of acceptance from the regionally accredited school. State Personnel will review such requests on a case-by-case basis.

Note: This policy is subject to change. Certain state agencies may have additional requirements.

*The term "regionally accredited school" refers to an institution of higher education accredited by one of the above listed accreditation associations.
