- Current, permanent status as an Epidemiologist or Public Health Research Analyst II (promotional register only).
- Masters of Public Health or Masters of Science in Public Health from an accredited* four-year college or university.
- Four (4) years of professional experience in epidemiology.

OR

- Master's degree from an accredited* four-year college or university in Science or a closely related field with 20 semester hours in epidemiology, biometrics, or biostatistics (see important note below).
- Four (4) years of professional experience in epidemiology.

NOTE(S)

- Applicants with a Master's degree in Science or a closely related field with 20 semester hours in epidemiology, biometrics, or biostatistics MUST also submit an official college transcript for each accredited* postsecondary academic institution attended. Applications received without a transcript will not be processed. Please see our website for more information regarding our transcript policy.
- A Doctoral degree from an accredited* college or university with a concentration in Epidemiology, Biometrics, Biostatistics, or Public Health will substitute for four (4) years of the required experience. Applicants using this substitution must also submit an official doctoral college transcript for each accredited* post-graduate academic institution attended. Applications received without a transcript will not be processed. Please see our website for more information regarding our transcript policy.
- Honorary doctorate degrees or degrees honoris causa are not acceptable.
- The Alabama Department of Public Health will verify possession of the degree prior to employment.

EXAMINATION

- Open-Competitive to all applicants and Promotional to current state employees in the job class identified above.
- An Evaluation of Training and Experience as shown on the application will comprise 95% of the applicant's final score for the promotional register, with the remaining 5% being based on the average of the applicant's service ratings for the last three years. Scores from the evaluation will comprise 100% of the final score for the open-competitive register.

HOW TO APPLY

- Complete an Application for Examination Form available at www.personnel.alabama.gov, the above address, or any Alabama Career Center Office.
- Apply on-line, by mail, by fax, or by email at apply@personnel.alabama.gov. Applications will be accepted until further notice. The State Personnel Department is not responsible for late receipt of applications due to mail service or faxing malfunctions.

THE STATE OF ALABAMA IS AN EQUAL OPPORTUNITY EMPLOYER

*Please refer to the back of this announcement for complete information on State Personnel's policy for accepting post-secondary and advanced degrees.

Except for pretest information provided by State Personnel to all applicants, you should not directly or indirectly obtain information about examinations. If you do, the State Personnel Director may do several things. One, you may not be given an examination. Two, you may be disqualified after an examination. Three, your name may be removed from a register. Or four, your name may not be certified from the register. (Rules of the State Personnel Board, Chapter 670-x-9). According to the Code of Alabama, 36-26-47, a willful violation of exam security is a misdemeanor. Any person who is convicted of this type of misdemeanor will be ineligible for appointment to or employment in a position in State service for a period of five years and, if the person is an officer or employee of the State, will forfeit his or her office or position.

If you know of anyone who has violated this policy, you should contact the Examination Manager at the State Personnel Department.

Applicants hired by the State of Alabama on or after January 1, 2012 will be subject to the E-Verify process pursuant to Act No. 2011-535.

Policy on Accepting College Coursework, Post-Secondary and Advanced Degrees

1. Specific college coursework required for a job classification, as well as bachelor's, graduate, post graduate, and doctoral degrees will be accepted from schools accredited by the Distance Education Accrediting Commission (DEAC) or any of the six regional accreditation associations in the United States listed below:

- Southern Association of Colleges and Schools (SACS)
- Middle States Commission on Higher Education (MSCHE)
- Northwest Commission on Colleges and Universities (NWCCU)
- Higher Learning Commission (HLC)
- New England Commission of Higher Education (NECHE)
- Western Association of Schools and Colleges –Senior College and University Commission (WASC-SCUC)

College coursework is defined as credit hours leading to a bachelor's degree or higher.

2. Coursework or degrees from schools that have not been accredited by one of the above accreditation associations may be accepted if a regionally accredited school* considers the coursework or degree to be an acceptable prerequisite for admission to an advanced degree program. For example, if a regionally accredited school accepts an applicant's bachelor's degree for admittance into a graduate degree program, State Personnel will accept the degree. In the case of required college coursework (but no degree requirement), State Personnel will accept the college coursework if a regionally accredited school accepts the coursework towards a post-secondary degree (e.g., a bachelor's degree). This must be documented by a letter of acceptance from the regionally accredited school. State Personnel will review such requests on a case-by-case basis.

Note: This policy is subject to change. Certain state agencies may have additional requirements.

*The term "regionally accredited school" refers to an institution of higher education accredited by one of the six regional accreditation associations listed above.
